APPALLING TOLL OF LIVES IN BOMBING OF REFUGEE SHIP

Relentless Attack By Japanese Planes In Yangtze, Near Yoyang

PASSENGERS JUMP IN RIVER TO ESCAPE MACHINE-GUNNING

Hankow, October 24. IT IS NOW ESTABLISHED THAT AN APPALLING TOLL of 2,000 lives, mostly women and children, was taken by Japanese planes during the bombing and sinking of a refugee ship in the Yangtze at Chenglingki, near Yoyang, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship, at first believed to be the China Merchants' s.s. Kiang Hsin, was later established to be a large iron clad coal freighter which was transformed into a refugee craft to evacuate the thousands of civilians from the Wuhan area.

BOMBS FALL NEAR H.M.S. SANDPIPER

Six heavy Japanese bombers dropped a large number of bombs around H.M.S. Sandpiper early yesterday morning whilst she was moored in the vicinity of Changsha. The Sandpiper sustained superficial damage to her upperworks but there were no casualties, says a Reuter message.

SITUATION IN JERUSALEM

Jerusalem, Oct. 24. The situation was quieter over the week-end in Jerusalem where the troops have now handed the civil administration to the police authorities. The "Coldstream Guards" have been withdrawn from the Old City.

The curfew has been relaxed and is now in force from 5 p.m. to 7 a.m.—Reuter.

IMMIGRATION QUESTION

Geneva, Oct. 24. The British representative of the Mandates Commission of the League of Nations has asked for a full discussion as to whether the prohibition of further immigration of Jews to Palestine would be a breach of the Mandates Agreement.

The question is expected to be discussed at the next session of the Mandates Commission.—Reuter.

STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

For a time, the narrow stretch of the Yangtze at the Chenglingki bend where the waters of the Tungting Lake empty into the river was scattered with bodies while hundreds of people struggled and fought for their lives in the treacherous stream.

The attacked ship, bombed and machine-gunned, was soon holed in a number of places. It gradually took water and sank with hundreds more of panic-stricken women and children.

A later incomplete estimate places the number of survivors at a little over 100.—Central News.

CZECH FUND

The Lord Mayor's Fund for refugees in Czechoslovakia, now amounts to over £192,000, according to a British Wireless message.

Whereabouts Of Chinese Statesmen Arouses Interest

Considerable interest has been aroused in Chinese circles concerning the whereabouts of both Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Foreign Minister, and Mr. Wang Ching-wei, Vice-Chief Executive of the Kuomintang, whose peace hints have drawn severe criticism from influential Chinese circles.

The "Daily Press" has been authoritatively informed that neither of these Chinese statesmen are in Hongkong.

According to the International News Agency, Dr. Wang Chung-hui is in Hongkong and was seen yesterday afternoon by a Chinese newspaper man. The Foreign Minister stated that he came here for medical treatment to his nose, as the doctor who used to treat him is now in Hongkong.

Dr. Wang declined to reveal when he came here and said he might leave for Chungking at any time. He urged the interviewer not to attach importance to recent rumours.

Asked whether Mr. Wang Ching-wei is also in Hongkong, Dr. Wang said he could speak only for himself.

PEACE TERMS

Dr. Wang Chung-hui was in Hongkong during the early part of the week while Sir Archibald Clark

London, Oct. 24. Two thousand Scottish fisher girls in Yarmouth, Lowestoft, refused to handle herrings this morning which were caught on Sunday.

The girls struck because they maintain that English herring fishers have an advantage over Scottish fishermen who never catch on Sundays.

The strike has disorganised the market.—Reuter.

C.H.R. BADLY BOMBED

Yichianwan Station Damaged

A Reuter message from Nanyo (Southern Sacred Mountain) reports that the Canton-Hankow Railway, south of Changsha, was badly bombed by Japanese planes. Especially the section between Changsha and Hengyang. When motoring in a military truck from Changsha to Nanyo, Reuter's correspondent saw the railway station at Yichianwan, above Chuchow, badly damaged and demolished locomotives and coaches could still be seen at the station.

The alarm was sounded when Reuter's correspondent passed Yichianwan Station and the soldiers stopped all motor vehicles. The occupants of a train which had just passed the station, all left the train and ran to nearby hills.

The raiders, however, did not bomb Yichianwan. The trip between Changsha and Nanyo which normally takes only two hours took nearly seven hours on this occasion owing to the frequent alarm and also the delay in ferrying across the Siang River above Hengshen.

Bluecher In China?

PERSISTENT LONDON AND HANKOW REPORTS

Hankow, Oct. 24. London reports that Marshal Vassily Bluecher, former Commander-in-Chief of Soviet forces in the Far East, may be in China are echoed here by a report to the effect that he is somewhere in Hunan co-operating with General Chu Teh, Commander-in-Chief of the 8th Route Army. General Chu Teh, according to a Chinese press dispatch, was in Hankow a short while ago. It was said that he was accompanied by several "foreign military advisers." (Continued on Page 9)

HANKOW REFUGEE ZONE NOW RECOGNISED

Area Includes Former Concessions, Chinese Territory

Hankow, October 24. FATHER JACQUINOT, FAMED ORIGINATOR of the Nantao refugee zone, this morning issued the following statement to the press:—

"The Hankow refugee zone for which the Hankow and Shanghai Committees have been working for some time has now been recognised. The area is in accordance with the minimum request of the Hankow Committee. The Committee is now proceeding with the completion of its preparation."

It is learned from reliable sources that the area includes the former Concessions also the Chinese territory as far back as the railway line but not the Japanese Concession. After the statement was issued, Father Jacquinot added that the Chinese Government was already financing the zone while the China National Relief Committee from the Government banks is financing the rice purchases.—Reuter.

WUHAN AREAS BOMBED

Hankow, Oct. 24. The Liuchiamiao and Koususu areas in Hankow suffered the most as a result of the mass air raids by more than 60 Japanese bombers yesterday.

Hanchapang railway station and its vicinity in Wuchang also sustained considerable damage. The outskirts of the Wuhan cities were also severely bombed. One of the raiding planes flew low over Hankow and dropped a number of handbombs.

Throughout the day Japanese scouting planes flew overhead conducting extensive reconnaissance.—Central News.

FALL 'IMMINENT'

Shanghai, Oct. 24. Both the Japanese army and navy forces are striking at Hankow with lightning speed to-day as an armoured car unit reached Hwangpei, 32 kilometres north of the Wuhan cities and warships on the Yangtze advanced to the vicinity of Kokiaton, about 33 kilometres in a straight line to the east, according to Japanese army reports.

Dispatches from various fronts from military authorities in Tokyo claimed the fall of Hankow as move out so easily.—Central News.

400,000 PEOPLE REMAIN

Hankow, Oct. 24. Interviewed by the Central News to-day, Dr. Wu Kuo-cheng, Mayor of Hankow, revealed that despite rigorous evacuation measures by the authorities, there still remain about 400,000 people in the Wuhan area.

Dr. Wu stated that the population of Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang in normal times was increased to 1,500,000 shortly after the fall of Nanking last year but was recently reduced to 750,000 following evacuation orders.

There now remains a skeleton population of 400,000 in the area, which the authorities are finding not easy to scatter.

Dr. Wu explained the difference between Nanking and Hankow. In Nanking, the population being largely members of Government organs and their families, was generally mobile and was able to follow the Government wherever it moved, while in Hankow the people are mostly making their own living in industrial and commercial undertakings and cannot move out so easily.—Central News.

Just Another Error In Japanese Marksmanship

Shanghai, October 24. THE BRITISH AUTHORITIES protested to the Japanese naval authorities at 4.30 p.m. to-day against the bombing of H.M.S. Sandpiper. The Japanese expressed regrets and promised an investigation.

The bombing is believed by authorities to have occurred through some mistake. The facts of the matter are now under investigation, the communique added.—Reuter.

NO OFFICIAL REPORT

Tokyo, Oct. 24. No official report, it is stated, had reached Tokyo up till this afternoon concerning the bombing of the British gunboat Sandpiper by Japanese planes at Changsha. It is, however, added that on the strength of foreign press reports on the subject, the Japanese naval authorities immediately ordered an investigation of the matter.—Transocean.

NOVICE LORRY DRIVER FINED

Séquel To Smash In Wanchai

As the result of a traffic accident which occurred outside the "Daily Press" works in Hennessy Road on Saturday when Sub-Inspector Choy Hing-ki, of the Hongkong Police Reserve, was knocked down by a lorry, Wong Kwok-chol, the lorry driver, was yesterday charged with driving without due care and caution before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Court. Wong pleaded guilty to the charge.

Inspector Saunders, of the Traffic Department, who was in charge of the case, told the Court that Sub-Inspector Choy was travelling on a motor cycle along Hennessy Road going eastward. When turning a corner into Percival Street, defendant, who was driving in the opposite direction in a lorry, collided into Sub-Inspector Choy, whose cycle was dragged along a distance of nine feet.

Inspector Saunders said that defendant had only two months' experience in driving. "Perhaps there is some excuse because he is a new man. But it is a bad case," he added.

Wong was fined $75 or six weeks' imprisonment.

Sub-Inspector Choy, who was immediately conveyed to Queen Mary Hospital, is progressing satisfactorily, but it is understood that it will be some time before he can leave.

SMUGGLING OF TWO DOGS

A fine of $25 was imposed by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Court yesterday on Tsang Tang, 36-year-old vegetable gardener, for bringing two dogs from Un Lung, in the New Territories, into Kowloon without permission from the Colonial Veterinary Surgeon.

An Indian constable stated that he saw Tsang riding a bicycle in Pei Ho Street but when defendant saw him turned into a side street. Defendant was carrying a basket.

The constable stated that when he followed Tsang into the side street, the latter attempted to turn again into another street, but fell off his bicycle. The dogs fell out of the basket.

TOOK CAMERA FROM CAR

Yuen Kan, 20, appeared before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday charged with larceny of a Kodak camera with case, from an unknown person.

Stopped by an Indian constable in Canton Road on Saturday with the camera in his possession, defendant admitted having stolen it from a blue four-seater car parked outside the Central Radio Shop in Nathan Road.

A remand of 48 hours in police custody was granted.

CHARGED WITH STEALING LEAD

Lo Sze, an employee of the Hongkong Telephone Company, Ltd., appeared before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday charged with theft of a quantity of lead on Saturday. A salesman named Lo Nam, 28, was charged with receiving the lead.

Mr. C. Y. Kwan appeared for the latter's defence and Detective Sergeant Oakley prosecuted.

Both cases were remanded for 24 hours.

COUNTERFEIT COINS CASE REMANDED

Appearing before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday charged with possession of counterfeit coins, Ching Shu-leung, 58, unemployed, and Leung So, married woman, were both remanded for 12 hours on the application of Detective-Sergeant H. B. Dewar.

Mr. S. Ng-Quinn appeared for the defence.

EVIDENCE HEARD IN CLAIM FOR MAINTENANCE

Husband Denies Ceremony

Further evidence was heard in the case in which Lee Sing-on was summoned by his wife, Leung Sing-yuk, for maintenance, before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday.

Mr. J. T. Prior appeared for the defence, while Mr. C. A. Sutherland represented the complainant. It was stated that the parties were married in Canton in January 1937. Complainant was a tin-fong wife. The marriage took place in the presence of complainant's parents and a go-between, and a document was drawn up in the nature of a marriage certificate. The couple lived happily until April this year, when defendant left the house and did not return.

VALID CERTIFICATE

Mok Pak-tin, barrister-at-law in Chinese law, testified that the document was a valid marriage certificate, and told the Court that the essential points in a Chinese marriage were firstly, a public ceremony and secondly, there must be two or more witnesses. The word tin-fong was only a "slang."

Defendant, in the witness box, said that he had been smoking opium for 12 years. He came to know complainant at No. 291 Queen's Road Central, where he rented a cubicle to smoke opium. In 1937 he had made an appointment to go to Canton together with the complainant, and when they arrived there they stayed at the Ash Hotel.

He said that there was no ceremony at the marriage and complainant's parents were not present. He alleged that complainant's parents had fabricated the story against him. He had been sending a sum of $40 to complainant until April when he became ill. The hearing was then adjourned till November 8.

STOLEN LEICA CAMERA

Man Charged With Receiving

Lam Shui-king appeared before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Court yesterday charged with receiving a Leica camera, which was alleged to have been stolen by Mak Wai-ming, the well-known local swimmer, who is now serving a prison term for theft.

Mr. D. MacCallum appeared for the defendant and pleaded not guilty. Detective Inspector Whant was for the prosecution.

Inspector Whant said that the owner of the camera, Mr. Teheng Po-king, a student of the Hongkong university, reported the loss of the camera to the police on May 22, the day of the theft. Mr. Teheng also made a personal round of many camera dealers and gave them details of the camera. He visited Messrs. Schmidt and Co. Ltd., agents for Leica cameras.

TAKEN FOR REPAIRS

In September defendant took the camera to Messrs. Schmidt and Co. for repairs. Mr. To Wing-hang, clerk, after taking in the camera, realised that it was identical to the one reported lost, and informed the manager, Mr. Genrich.

When defendant came to call for the camera, Mr. To put him off for two days owing to the absence of Mr. Genrich. When defendant called on the second occasion, Mr. Genrich took him to the police station.

Inspector Whant continued that defendant had said that the camera was purchased from a friend for a sum of $250, but later admitted that he had bought it from Mak Wai-ming for the sum of $80.

A Chinese detective on making investigation found Mak Wai-ming, who was taken into custody.

After evidence was given by complainant the hearing was adjourned to November 1.

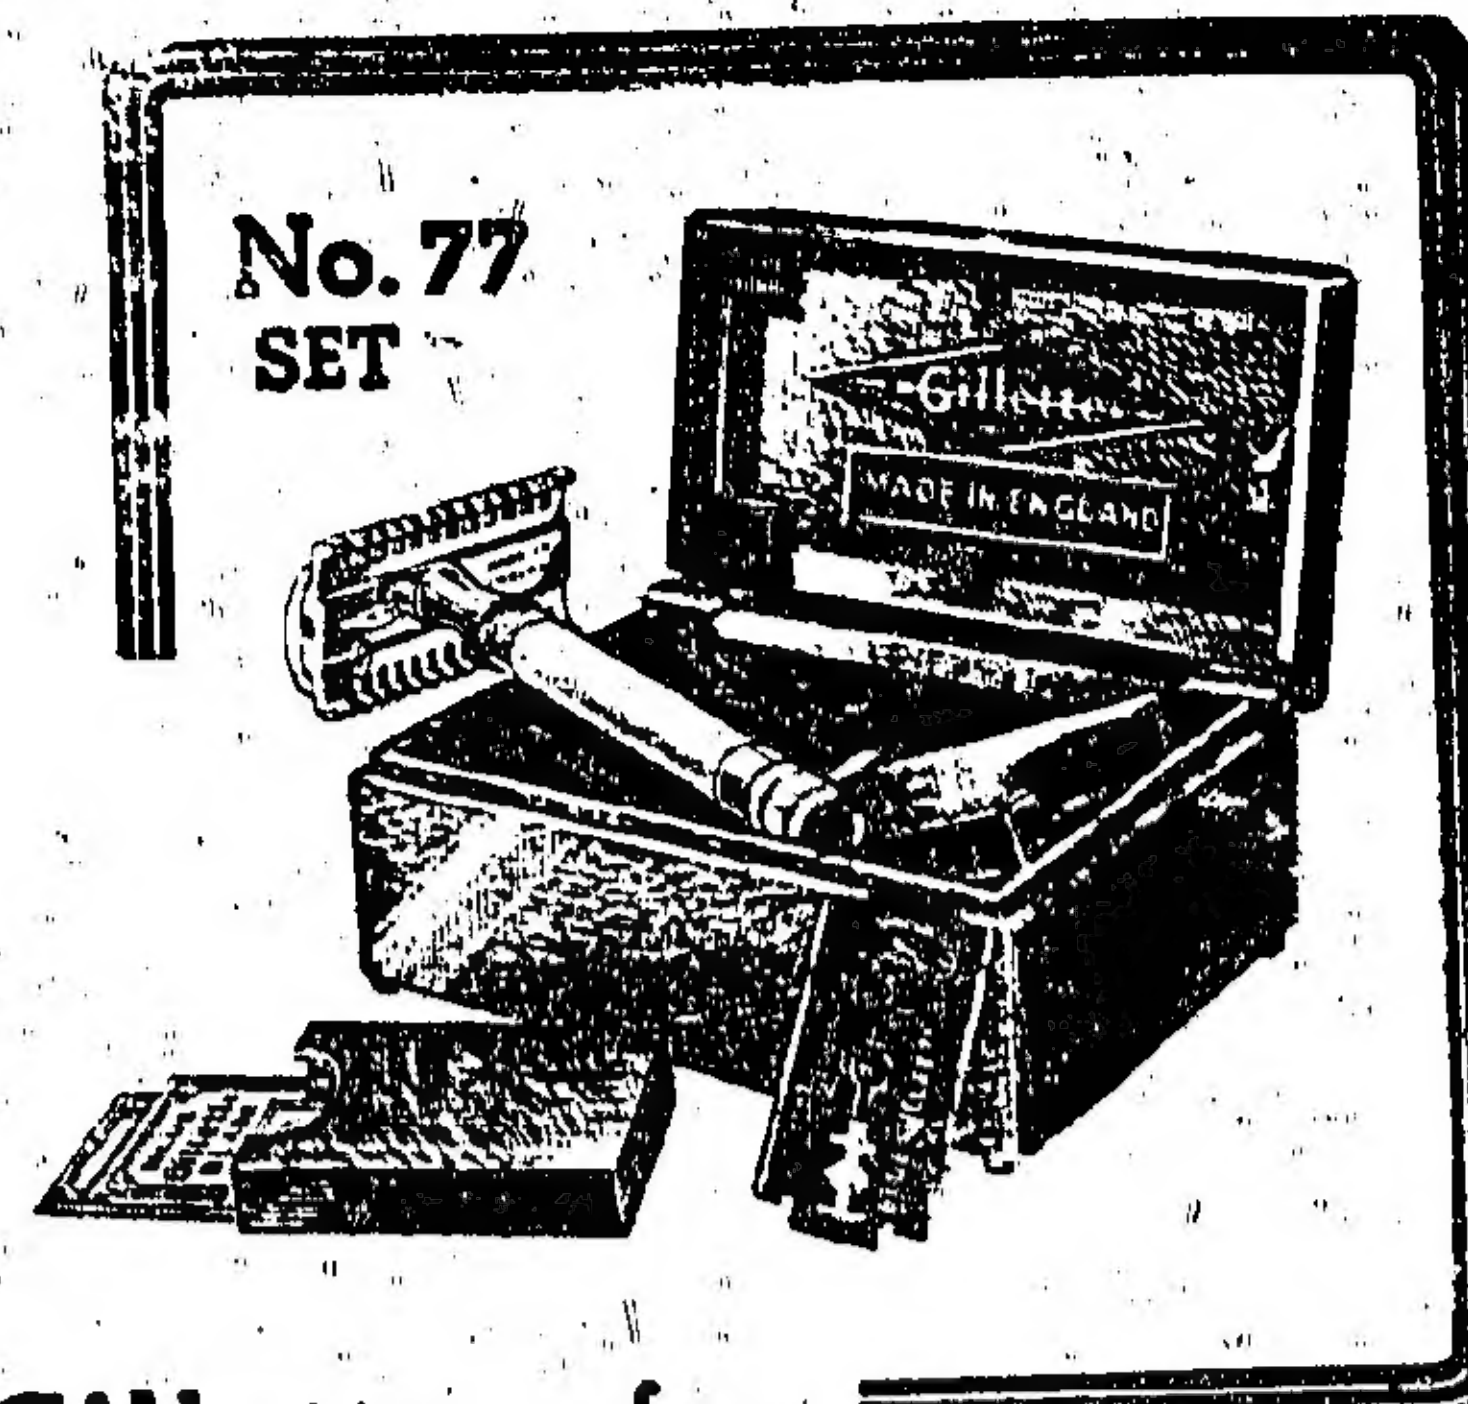

EUROPEAN'S HOUSE ENTERED

Sentence of six weeks' hard labour was passed by Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday on Chan Sul-tong, 28, who was charged with larceny of a pair of sun-glasses, a cheque book and Star Ferry season ticket from the home of Mr. H. G. Williams in Kadoorie Avenue.

Returning home on Sunday, Mr. Williams saw defendant leaving by the back door. He stated that he intercepted defendant and found on him the articles mentioned.

ARMS CONFISCATED

Mr. H. R. Butters, at the Central Court yesterday, made an order for confiscation of an old rifle, a musket and a revolver, which were found on the hillside near the Tsai Wai Cemetery on Sunday by the police.

ROYAL NAVY
MANY NEW SHIPS

From now till the end of the year, 12 new vessels of war should be launched from the private shipyards. Included in the total are the cruiser Nesad, the first of the Dido class; six destroyers of the Javelin type; the submarine Tribune; and four minesweepers and gunboats. This would bring up the number launched during the year to 27 vessels, aggregating nearly 50,000 tons.

Great as is this total, it should be largely exceeded by the ships due to take the water during 1939, in which year about 50 ships, of more than 250,000 tons, will be launched.

They will include the first two battleships of the rearmament programme, the King George V and Prince of Wales, each of 35,000 tons; at least three of the new aircraft-carriers of the Illustrious class, of 23,000 tons; nearly a dozen cruisers of the Dido and Fiji types; 18 destroyers of the Kelly and Laforey classes; seven submarines of the Triton class; and about 12 escort vessels, minesweepers, patrol vessels, and gunboats. This launching output will be by far the greatest of any post-war year.

WITH HOPALONG CASSIDY

A story as thrill-packed as the wild Mexican back country against which it takes place is told in the latest "Hopalong Cassidy" action drama, "In Old Mexico," which opens at the Alhambra Theatre to-day.

William Boyd, George Hayes and Russell Hayden play the chief roles in this Clarence E. Mulford story, which for excitement, romance and suspense has not been equalled for a long time.

"In Old Mexico," the first sequel in the history of the "Hopalong Cassidy" shows what great interest there can be in the continuation of the story of a former success. In it "The Fox," the notorious character who figured prominently in the popular "Borderland" a season ago, breaks out of jail bent on revenge against "Hoppy" and the wealthy "Gonzales" family of Mexico.

ISLAND FOR 100,000 JEWS

Two new plans to help Jewish settlers were revealed on October 6.

One is to settle 100,000 Jewish refugees on Melville Island, off the north coast of Australia.

This scheme is being considered by Mr. J. B. Cramsie, former chairman of the Australia Meat Council, says Reuter.

The other plan to be considered is conversion of Palestine from a mandatory territory to an independent State, allied by treaty to Great Britain and governed under a constitution drawn up by a constituent assembly.

This would embody guarantees of full civil and religious rights to all communities.

Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, Colonial Secretary, discussed at the Colonial Office the Palestine position with Dr. Weizmann, president of the World Zionist Organisation.

SELF-DETERMINATION

The plan suggests that local autonomy in educational and municipal affairs, subject to the sovereignty of the State, would be guaranteed to Arab and Jewish towns and villages.

Following Mr. MacDonald's statement in the House of Commons on the gravity of the situation, he was asked there by Colonel Nathan (Sec. Wandsworth Central) for an assurance that no steps would be taken that would alter the political or international status of Palestine, until the Commons could express its opinion.

Mr. MacDonald: Clearly the House must confirm any arrangement.

QUICK LUNCHEON BUFFET HYGIENE CRITICISED

Expert Calls For Supervision

Rush counter and quick lunch buffet were censured by Mr. A. L. Thomson, Chief Sanitary Inspector of Motherwell and Wishaw, at the conference of the Sanitary Inspectors' Association at Edinburgh, recently.

These recent developments in commercial catering, and the greater patronage of public eating and drinking establishments, had concomitants which invited, he said, strong hygienic criticism.

The common drinking cup had long been under a sanitary ban, but what, he asked, of the eating and drinking utensils used in turn by large numbers without efficient cleansing and sterilisation?

A dip and a swirl in a tank of dirty water was more in the nature of further contamination than of a cleansing treatment.

The difficulty was not the absence of means to effect thorough sterilisation. Dish-washing machines were available. Where they could not be afforded, hot water and chemical treatment of an efficacious character could be used.

MILK ANOMALY

Mr. H. Hill, of Southgate, dealing with the question of the laboratory control of milk supplies, declared that in spite of all that had been attempted, the milk supplies of this country were still unsatisfactory.

"No legislation, in force or contemplated," he said, "other than that which would fix a definite bacteriological standard for all milk, can ensure the production of a hygienic product owing to the constant difficulty of enforcement."

"Animals can and do yield tuberculous milk without clinical signs of the disease in the udder."

"The anomaly of the existence of fixed standards for the chemical composition of milk as related to the public, whereas no standard of hygienic quality of non-designated milk is considered necessary, is a matter requiring immediate amendment."

Inspectorial control and clinical examinations of cattle had not achieved their purpose and therefore the routine examination of all milk supplies, and particularly the examination of such supplies for the presence of tubercle bacilli, should be widely extended.

SOUND MEAT SUPPLIES

Mr. T. Topping, of Rochester, said that although meat inspection in England and Wales still offered loopholes through which some diseased meat could pass to the consumer, this section of Health Department work was well up to the present-day standard of general public health activities.

Never before had the general meat supply of the public in England and Wales been so free from disease or conditions of unsoundness as now. Never before had the meat traders as a whole paid such practical respect to the consumer's right to wholesome food.

HOSPITAL FOR DOCK PEOPLE

Queen Mary Opens New Buildings

London, Oct. 22

The new buildings of the hospital in the Dock district, opened yesterday by Queen Mary, is regarded in medical circles as embodying the last word in modern technique for the treatment of fractures and rehabilitation of patients suffering from fractures.

The procedure from the patient's arrival onwards was explained to Queen Mary by the senior surgeon. Prevention of mitigation of shock is the first consideration. The new fracture theatre has a specially filled bakelite operating table which, with auxiliary apparatus in an adjoining room, permits X-ray photographs to be taken in the course of an operation and exhibited through an illuminated panel in the wall within 35 seconds.

An important part of the rehabilitation centre is the gymnasium provided out of a gift of £10,000 from Lord Nuffield. Contributions to the funds of the hospital have also been made by the Shipping Federation and Seamen's Union.

Among the patients at present in hospital whom Queen Mary saw in the wards yesterday were sailors of many nationalities including Indians, Russians and Chinese.—British Wireless.

FALLS GOOD FOR CHILDREN

Learning Balance

Dr. Alan Maberley told the Summer School of the British Social Hygiene Council, at Horsea, Yorkshire, recently, that a child of one or two years could fall, and do itself little injury.

Often falls out of prams, etc., were beneficial. If a child did not fall between one and two years it would fall between two and four years, and it learned things by falling.

Balance was another thing that was necessary for a child, and the normal child, left to itself and not frightened about falling, moved astonishingly easily. If there was anyone there warning it, it lost its balance and developed an air of tenseness.

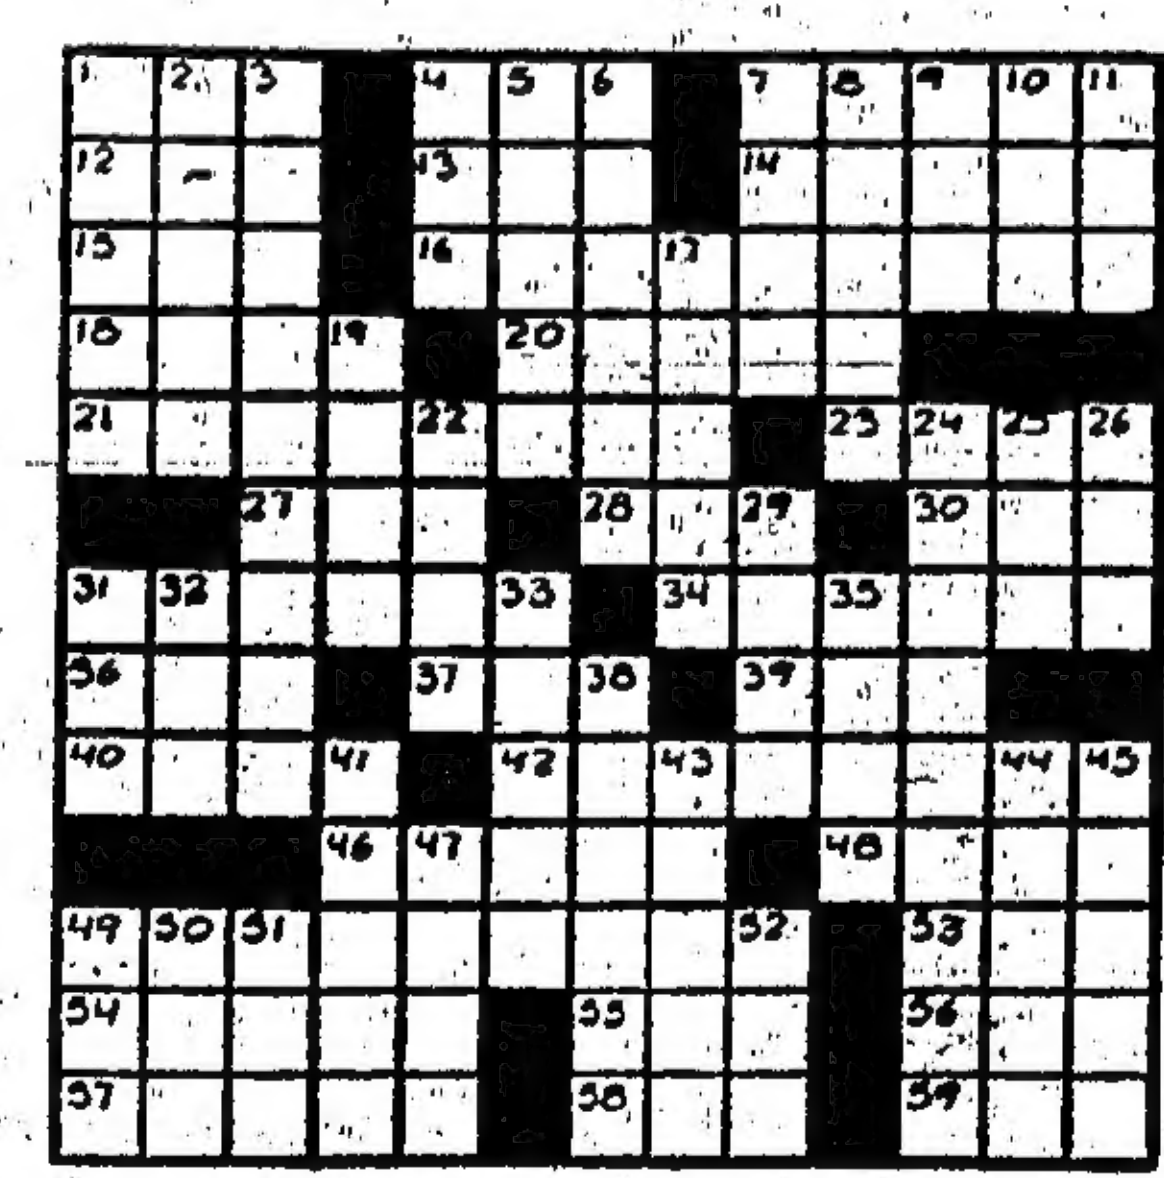

The present-day standard of general public health activities.

Never before had the general meat supply of the public in England and Wales been so free from disease or conditions of unsoundness as now. Never before had the meat traders as a whole paid such practical respect to the consumer's right to wholesome food.

FOOT ITCH

Athlete's Foot

According to the Government Health Bulletin No. E.28, at least 50% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form, and the skin cracks and peels. After a while, the itching becomes intense, and you feel as though you would like to scratch off all the skin.

BEWARE OF IT SPREADING

Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.

Get rid of this disease as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of the legs.

Most people who have Athlete's Foot have tried all kinds of remedies to cure it without success. Ordinary germicides, antiseptics, salve or ointments seldom do any good.

HERE'S HOW TO TREAT IT

The germ that causes the disease is known as Tinea Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill the germ; so you can see why ordinary remedies are unsuccessful.

H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of treating Athlete's Foot. It is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the affected parts. It peels off the tissue of the skin where the germ breeds.

ITCHING STOPS IMMEDIATELY

As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time.

H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief, especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

JAPANESE STOP DOLLAR LINER FROM SAILING

Object To Silver Shipment

Shanghai, Oct. 24.

The departure of the President Coolidge for America, due for this morning, was delayed because the Japanese-controlled Customs refused to issue an export permit for 100 cases of silver loaded on board the liner.

It is presumed that the Japanese contend that the silver is owned by the Chinese National Government.

The American Consul-General, Mr. E. Gauss, and Mr. Hidaka, Japanese Consul, negotiated this morning, and it was later announced that the ship would sail tomorrow morning.

The President Coolidge was recently taken over from the Dollar Line by the American Maritime Commission, and is therefore partly owned by the United States Government.—Reuter.

FRENCH DIPLOMATIC RESHUFFLE

Paris, Oct. 24.

An important diplomatic reshuffle is announced as a result of the transfer of M. Francois Pontet from Berlin to Rome.

M. Erik Labonne, at present Ambassador to Barcelona, has been appointed Resident-General at Tunis. He will be succeeded by M. Jules Henry, chief private Secretary to M. Bonnet.

M. Paul Naggiar, Ambassador to China, is being transferred to Moscow, where he takes the place of M. Coulondre, who has been appointed Ambassador to Berlin.

It is understood that M. George Bonnet also recommended the appointment of M. Massigli, Director of Political Affairs at the Quai d'Orsay, to be Ambassador to Turkey.

In some quarters these changes are regarded as a sign of France's new attitude towards the totalitarian States since the Munich agreement.—Reuter.

REGISTER CARDS OPPOSED BY ARABS

Jerusalem, Oct. 24.

The recent Government order that all male inhabitants over 16 years of age should register for cards of identity has resulted in the Arab leaders issuing counter-orders to their countrymen, in which they declare that anyone known to have obtained one of these cards will be summarily shot dead.

The Government order is intended primarily to ascertain the loyal elements in the Arab peasantry, who constitute the bulk of the population.

Buildings at the Jaffa railway station were set afire this morning, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

The 1st Royal Dragons have arrived on board the British steamer Telesias, at Haifa.—Reuter.

JAPANESE QUESTIONED ON PEACE PROSPECTS

Tokyo, October 24.

Asked at this morning's press conference whether there were any indications that China wanted peace, a Foreign Office spokesman replied:

"Wang Ching-wei is reported to have told Reuter that China is ready to enter into peace negotiations with Japan, but we, of course, have not been directly informed of this from the Chinese side."

Questioned as to whether Japan would be willing to talk peace if China is prepared to do so, the spokesman said: "If and when the actual Chinese leaders become aware of the uselessness and futility of their anti-Japanese policy and also realise that the peace, safety and prosperity of China lies in co-operation with Japan, then the time will come when Japan would enter into peace negotiations with China."

The spokesman was non-committal when he was asked to define "actual Chinese leaders," nor would he say whether he included Marshal Chiang Kai-shek among them.—Reuter.

NO NEW MINISTRIES TO BE CREATED

London, October 24.

A sweeping reconstruction of the Cabinet following the resignation of Mr. A. Duff-Cooper, and the death of Lord Stanley, is regarded as unlikely.

The creation of three new ministries—National Defence, Supply, and Civil Shipping—which has been the subject of speculation, is thought to be quite out of the question, and some circles will be very surprised if even one new Ministry is created at present, though eventually some kind of Ministry to co-ordinate more closely the national defence departments is thought a possibility. Sir John Anderson, former Governor of Bengal, has been mentioned in this connection.

It is pointed out that Government machinery already exists through which a great deal could be done, such as the compilation of a National Register, and, despite criticisms, much already has been accomplished, and the armament programme is steadily rising in volume.

Captain Evan Wallace, Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade, is mentioned as a likely candidate for one of the vacancies in the Cabinet.

Captain David Margesson, Chief Government Whip, has been regarded by many in high quarters as an ideal First Lord of the Admiralty, but there is reason to believe that he may not wish to leave his present post as Chief Government Whip.

HUNGARY AGREES TO CZECH PLAN

Early Settlement Indicated

A statement giving further particulars about the Czech plan for settlement of the Hungarian frontier dispute was issued here late last night.

It is stated that the new plan does not include the towns of Pressburg, Neutra, Kaschen, Munkacs and Ushod in the territory to be ceded to Hungary. The note sent to Budapest by the Czech Government does not, however, exclude the possibility of modifications being made in the latest proposals. Consequently, the Czech plan as a whole has been accepted by the Hungarian Government as a basis for negotiations.

This plan was further examined by the Hungarian Cabinet yesterday, and counter-proposals were drawn up which were sent to Prague.

All signs now indicate that the dispute is heading for a speedy solution. It is believed that Hungary will insist upon an immediate reply from Prague. It is confidently believed that within this week or within a fortnight at the latest a settlement will be reached.—Transocean.

BITTER FIGHTING

Hankow, Oct. 23.

Bitter fighting has broken out again to the southeast of Oeheng, about 70 nautical miles below Hankow as Japanese troops are attempting a second landing there, according to field dispatches.

A message from southeast Honan states that the Japanese troops in the Shao sector are pushing vigorously southward to invade Hupeh. Chinese reinforcements have been rushed up to check them.—Central News.

STRANDED ACTRESSES WIN CLAIMS

Judgment by consent was given by Judge Dumas at Westminster County Court recently for two actresses who alleged that they were stranded when a theatrical tour in the Far East ended abruptly at Penang, Straits Settlements. Audrey Gladys Peljus, professionally known as Audrey Cleave, of Brent Street, Hendon, and Nora Edith Ethel Postford, whose stage name is Nora Ford, of Bouverie Road, Stoke Newington, each claimed £15 a week's salary due and a fortnight's salary in lieu of notice—from R. B. Salisbury, a theatrical agent, of Essex Street Strand.

At the previous hearing in May the defence was raised that the actresses were engaged only for the run of the tour, which the management could end at any time by saying "The tour is finished."

Mr. M. R. Nicholas, for the actresses, said he had been informed that Mr. Salisbury was now prepared to consent to judgment. Miss Peljus had agreed that she had earned £12 2s 6d by cabaret work in Penang when the tour ended. Miss Postford had earned £2 10s. He therefore asked for judgment for Miss Peljus for £13 17s 6d and costs, and for Miss Postford for £12 10s and costs.

Judge Dumas, giving judgment, remarked: "I said at the previous hearing that the West End custom of ending a contract did not necessarily extend to cases where young girls were taken far overseas."

RELIEF OF SEVERE HEART PAIN

A New Operation

Striking relief has been afforded in cases of severe heart pain by the removal of the thyroid gland in the neck.

Results of the treatment of twelve patients by this method are described in the "Lancet" by Dr. Geoffrey Bourne, who has charge of the cardiographic department, St. Bartholomew's Hospital, and Mr. J. Paterson Ross, surgeon to the hospital.

It is made clear that the treatment can only be applied to a certain type of case. Of the twelve sufferers, seven have greatly improved, three have shown improvement, and two have since died.

One man of seventy-three who could walk only fifty yards had afterwards been able to walk four miles. Three men were back at work, one as a steeplejack, another as a silversmith, and the third as a car works foreman.

Another man could now work in his garden and ride a cycle, and a woman who had previously to lie on a bed-couch could now walk again.

The reason for the effectiveness of the operation is not yet clear, though several theories have been advanced. The length of time that has elapsed proves that this measure is of great and lasting benefit in appropriately chosen cases. It is added.

STAN LAUREL ARRESTED

Stan Laurel, thin, lugubrious partner of the Laurel and Hardy team (now broken up), was arrested recently while out for a drive.

He was charged on suspicion of drunkenness and driving under the influence of drink.

It was thought that he was drowning his sorrows after being fired from the Roach studios last month, but he confided to the Hollywood magistrate that he had quarrelled with his third wife. He explained that his wife, Liliana, the Russian dancer—had run away and he was looking for her.

Stan has gone through three marriage ceremonies, with Liliana since he eloped with her last New Year's Eve.

USES OF ADVERSITY

A Glasgow mother, whose family of eight children were all supplied with gas masks during the distribution recently was asked what she proposed to do with the respirators, now that the immediate danger is past.

"Awel," said she, "Ah wis just thinking they'll come in awn handy for the bairns at Hallow-e'en!"

Round About

Boarding the ferry one chilly morning to cross over to the Hongkong side was a very young man, small in size and height.

The grey flannel suit he wore was slightly creased. The trousers were dragging at the heels, and were a bit too long. The seat of the trousers was many times too wide.

The coat was obviously too large, with sleeves nearly reaching his finger-tips, and below the usual length.

With a youthful arrogance swag and flourish he joined two friends on the ferry. The three young blades buried their noses in respective newspapers.

About half way across, one of the lads inquired in a serious tone: "New suit? Where did you get it?"

"Not exactly," responded the flannel-clad youth. "It belongs to my brother, but he is not very heavy!"

About size 32, he was wearing a near-38.

PASS THE TIME!

Collect a number of candle stubs—you should be able to find some of these in the house. Next, you must get some sheets of coarse, absorbent paper.

With paper, candle ends and a number of black and white illustrated newspapers and magazines you are ready for this novel pastime.

Rub over the surface of the absorbent paper with candle grease. Then place it wax side down, on a drawing or photograph. Rub the back of the paper with the bowl of a spoon (a knife handle does equally well), taking special care that the paper does not wrinkle.

After a few minutes, peel the paper off, and a perfect reverse impression, like a pencil drawing, is obtained.

If you are a clever little artist with lots of imagination you may arrange a whole collection of these candle-grease pictures in an album.

Indeed, there is no end to the ingenuity you may show, and you could even have little competitions among your friends to see who can produce the best, and most attractive set of pictures.

PEACE TALK.

THE LONDON PRESS is busy itself in discussing the prospects of peace in China. This talk is apparently instigated in the main by the opinions of some journalists who at some time of their lives have served in the Far East. It must be remembered, however, that a great deal of water has flowed under London Bridge since the last of those journalists left this part of the world.

The trend of recent events has been extremely puzzling even to those in touch with the situation but, in spite of this, we can find no indications that China is in any mood, less so now than she has been, since the outbreak of hostilities in July last year, to discuss peace.

ANOTHER OPINION expressed in the London Press, probably garbled by those very same journalists whom we have mentioned, is that Japan constitutes a threat to Hongkong, supposedly on account of the Munich Agreement. Japan has too much on her hands that she does not dare to embroil Britain. In the operations culminating in the occupation of Canton, the Japanese have gone to no little pains to avoid the British by keeping as far away from the New Territories (Kowloon) as possible. In fact, following their landing at Bias Bay they carefully avoided involving Great Britain by striking northwest and westward along the banks of the East River.

That everybody, especially the Chinese, is disappointed at the amazing debacle of Canton, is common knowledge but there are absolutely no visible signs of a Chinese surrender to Japan. Sunday apparently was a terrible day for Canton, as the Chinese, realizing that Canton had passed into Japanese hands, did the only thing left for them to do and that was to CANTON the whole city on DAY OF FIRE similar to what the Russians did to Moscow in 1912 when Napoleon marched on their capital. Telegrams received yesterday indicate that the Chinese propose to adopt similar methods in the event of the fall of Hankow.

THIS TIME THE JAPANESE troops appear to have behaved well to the civilian population, but isn't it somewhat late after the murder and rape in the north of SHAREHOLDERS IN SWEEP TICKET.

190 Amahs After $88,963.18

POINT IN DISPUTE

Singly, in pairs, and in groups, 190 amahs arrived at the Yau Ma Tei Police Station yesterday morning to register their names as shareholders in Kwangtung Handicap ticket No. 175233.

The ticket is worth $88,963.18. The point in dispute, necessitating the registration of all parties concerned, is—do only 55 shareholders exist, or as many as 190 shareholders? The Kowloon Amahs Syndicate was represented by 190 members, the number of tickets bought by the syndicate, of which the winning ticket is one, being 55 tickets.

Keen on sharing the wealth are 190 amahs. Not keen on dividing the wealth into so many shares are 55 amahs.

Messrs. Linstead and Davis, Secretaries of the Hongkong Jockey Club, will award the prize money to the holder of the winning ticket. The holder of this ticket has, we understand, consulted a solicitor. We understand, also, that non-holders of the winning ticket, distinguished in the membership in the Kowloon Amahs Syndicate, intend also to consult solicitors.

It is doubtful, though, that many amahs will retire on receiving their prize money. A little village called Shuntak, harbouring several retired members of the syndicate, shareholders in a ticket worth $145,000 after the final race meeting of last season, attracted quite a few believers in the "share the wealth" idea—bandits appearing who received their share in the "Derby Sweep" ticket as ransom money.

CASE AGAINST STUDENT

The case against Philip Chung, student, charged with driving while yet a learner, without being accompanied by a licensed driver, and with failing to report an accident, will be heard by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Court on Friday, October 28, at 12 noon.

The defendant, who will be represented by Mr. C. D'Almada, is alleged to have been involved in an accident at Castle Peak Road at 7 p.m. on October 15, when a seven-year-old boy was hurt and later died at the Kowloon Hospital. Bail of $100 was allowed.

The past fifteen months? They have antagonized the civilian population of China to such a degree that most foreign observers express the opinion that the Japanese will never be able to successfully govern the northern provinces of China. The guerrillas are making themselves felt more and more and the Japanese are continually having to equip expeditions to deal with them. With these brave groups constantly harassing them, is it in any way surprising that the Japanese should want peace?

Is not this peace talk, therefore, a lot of insidious Japanese propaganda? Naturally, Japan would like to have peace now that Canton has fallen and it is probable that Hankow may very likely follow suit. But the fall of Canton and the fall of Hankow will mean nothing to the Chinese campaign. They mean that only a couple of more cities are lost and that the Chinese people's determination to resist them will be stronger than ever.

IT WOULD BE A BOLD CHINESE GOVERNMENT which would dare, in the present mood of the Chinese people, to discuss peace terms with Japan and sign away any of China's honour or China's sovereignty and we would go so far as to assume that any government which did so would find itself immediately branded as a group of traitors and the people would at once rally against it.

It is a well known fact that Japan, finding herself, in an exceptionally bad way economically, would welcome peace at the present moment but they miscalculate the Chinese people who have nothing whatever to fear so long as they remain united as they have been during the past year and a half. Peace talks just now would be meaningless and the sooner people get the rumour out of their heads the better it will be. The only peace possible is peace with honour for China, not peace that will endanger China's independence and existence.

Kwok Kwong, 19, who, it is claimed, interfered with Brown when he was chasing Yu, catching hold of his arm and speaking to him in Chinese, was discharged for lack of a sufficiently strong case against him.

RUMOURS OF PEACE DESIRE RIDICULED

Chinese Reaction To Wang Ching-wei's Statements

At the very moment when Canton has been evacuated and when Wuhan is beleaguered, Mr. Wang Ching-wei, Deputy Executive of the Kuomintang, expressed an opinion on Sino-Japanese peace terms in an interview with Reuters at Chungking on Friday. At the same time, in London, the Japanese announced that their peace terms would be surprisingly mild. The announcement seems to be a response to Mr. Wang's words. No wonder Hongkong was yesterday filled with an "atmosphere of peace," says the "Ta Kung Pao" in an editorial yesterday.

We recall that on October 12 Mr. Wang Ching-wei also expressed an opinion to the Transocean News agency to the effect that China has not yet declined mediation by third Powers, but the success of mediation would lie in the nature of the Japanese peace terms. Believing that this hope for third Power mediation could not be the desire of the Government, in our editorial of October 13 we raised our doubts whether Mr. Wang had been correctly interpreted by Transocean. Now that Reuters has told the same story, it appears that there is no shadow of doubt about it.

As this expression was made by a man of Mr. Wang Ching-wei's importance in the Government, it greatly affects the destiny of our country. We, therefore, as citizens of the Republic of China cannot remain silent.

NOT SPEAKING FOR GOVERNMENT

First of all, we should analyse clearly that, important as may be the position of Mr. Wang Ching-wei, the Chief Executive is still Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. Reviewing recent facts, his determination to fight to the last man is the absolutely contrary to Mr. Wang's keen eagerness for peace. Hence, it is obvious that in the two interviews Mr. Wang was only expressing his personal opinion and, consequently cannot be speaking for the Government.

Secondly, the whole nation, in spite of vast sacrifices in men, property and in land, ever since the hostilities began, has unanimously become determined to fight to the very last man. Therefore, we do not believe that the Government will at this moment change a national policy which has been formed by the lives and blood of thousands of our compatriots, merely to satisfy one or two individuals.

These two points we wish to impress on our fellow countrymen and exhort them not to listen to rumour and to strengthen their belief in the ultimate victory to which we are entitled.

Now let us observe the policy of our armed resistance continues the "Ta Kung Pao." Although Canton has fallen and perhaps the same fate will befall Wuhan in the near future—we still have reasons to believe that these events are the result of military necessity. We are strongly confident that there are still ways for us to carry on the fourth phase of armed resistance.

INTERNAL GAINS

Much as China has suffered from this war, China has on the other hand also gained considerably. Besides the complete national unity achieved, communications are improved, and what is still more valuable, feudal militarism have been entirely liquidated and provincialism eradicated. As the war progresses, our internal achievements will not come to a halt. This brings out the necessity to carry on the struggle.

Turning to the problem of peace, it is a irrefutable universal principle that a country is able to make

WEAKER SUFFERS
What is more, in any international mediation, the weaker side will always suffer severe losses. This was recently proved in the case of Czechoslovakia. We therefore maintain unwaveringly that China's sole solution is to struggle on. Recently developments seem to conform with our opinion.

We wish to emphasize three points and hope that our Cantonese compatriots especially will understand:

1. The abandonment of Canton should occasion no surprise. It should be considered as a prelude to a Kwangtung war. One should not be over-optimistic and everyone should continue his best endeavours.

2. Our armed resistance cannot be halted and should not be stopped. The whole nation confirms its ideals and strengthens its unity.

3. At present no third Power mediation is possible. Mr. Wang Ching-wei's words will not in fact be effective. We should not be rendered nervous by his statements.

The much rumoured "peace atmosphere" ever since the fall of Canton is said to be really fomenting with Hongkong as the headquarters, says the "Nam Chung Pao," Shanghai correspondent. The Japanese were reported to have advanced the following proposals:

1. China to join in the Anti-Comintern Pact.
2. Limitations "as to China's scale of war preparations, supply of armaments and training, exports, etc."

Japanese circles announced that, should these two principles meet with China's approval, Japan may possibly give in as to other points. The Japanese said that the return of the status quo prior to the Lukouchiao Incident may then be effected and the two "Reformed Governments" may also be abolished. The new government will liberally adopt the "Reformed Government" officials.

It is rumoured here that Japanese circles have made out the following peace terms for China:—

CHIANG MUST RESIGN

(1) Chiang Kai-shek must resign, his military and administrative powers must be handed over to Wang Ching-wei.

(2) In the readjustment of China's foreign relations, China, Japan and the Powers concerned should together make the decisions.

(3) The areas occupied by the Japanese ever since the Lukouchiao Incident shall be evacuated in groups but according to the following process:

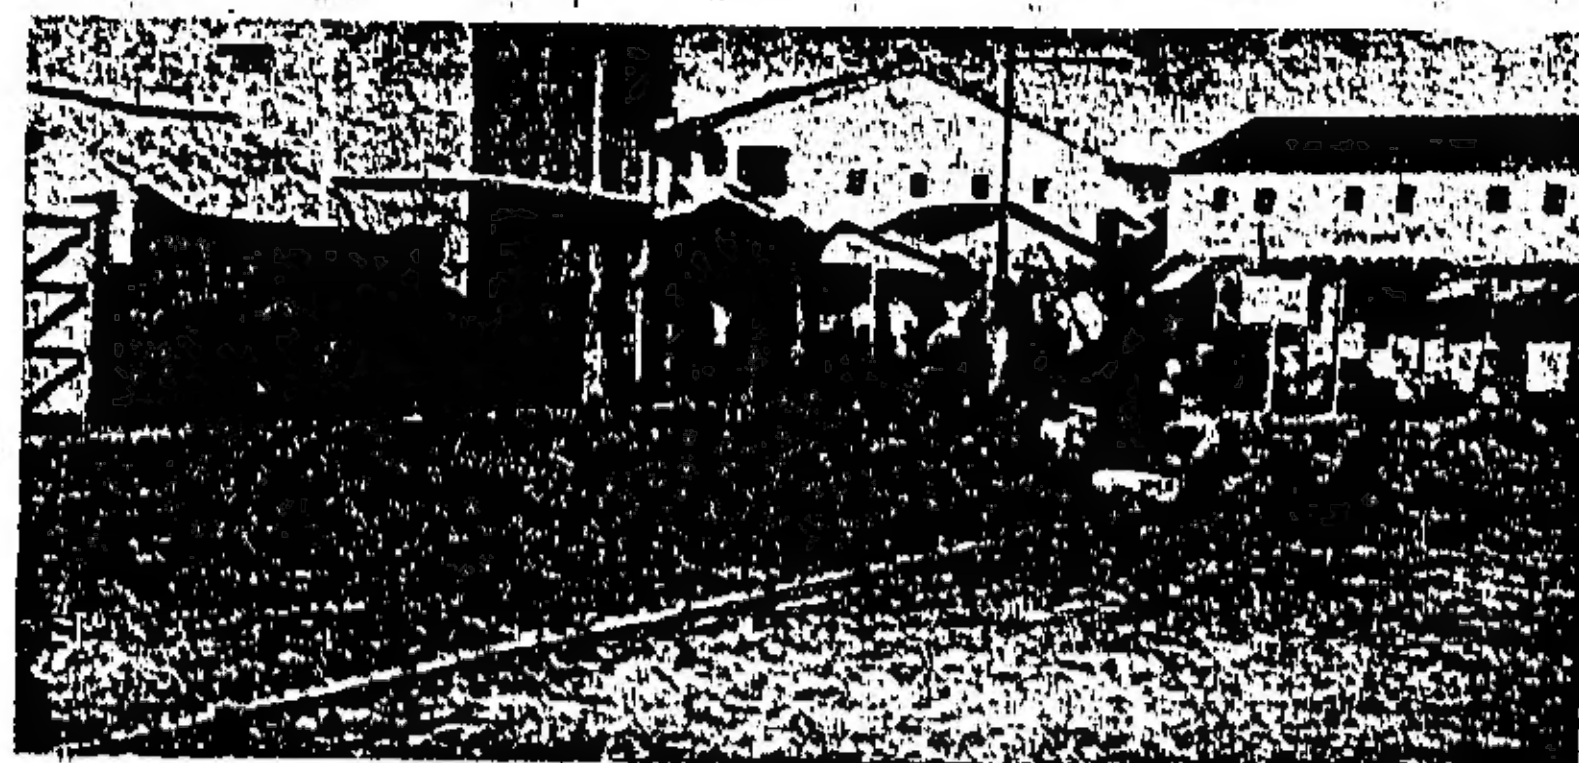

(a) According to the order of the Chinese indemnities to the losses incurred by the Japanese army in the area.

(b) According to the order of the removal of the influences of Chiang Kai-shek and the Communists in the area.

(c) According to the order of virtual enforcement of the Peace Preservation Corps system and policing system in the area.

Fresh Operations In Vicinity Of Great Wall

Hingtai, October 24.
LARGE UNITS OF JAPANESE TROOPS are being massed over an extensive area in the hilly regions on the north Hopei-Shansi border preparatory to fresh operations at a number of points outside and inside the Great Wall where Chinese guerrillas have been gathering in force.

The east of Hungyuan, important town outside the Great Wall, in north Shansi, 50 kilometres from the Chahar border, was the scene of a terrific battle for three days, according to a belated report received here to-day. During the battle the Japanese suffered more than 200 casualties.

Places along Tajenchwang and Tsinghsuiho, east of Hungyuan, continue to be points of bitter contention between the opposing forces. On October 15, 800 Japanese swooped down to surround the Chinese north-east of Hungyuan but were repulsed after a sanguinary battle.

Tatung, Sohsien and other places in north Shansi have seen increasing Japanese activities in the last week-end. Large numbers of beasts of burden were commandeered from the people there.

Large numbers of wounded Japanese soldiers were sent back to Taiyuan.—Central News.

HINT CLEARLY GIVEN

China May Leave The League

A clear hint that China is likely to quit the League of Nations in case that body again fails to apply sanctions against Japan was reportedly dropped by Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, Chinese representative on the Council, in a private talk with Britain's delegate to Geneva, Foreign Under-Secretary, Richard A. Butler.

Stressing China's growing disillusionment at League delays, Dr. Koo is authoritatively understood to have insisted that the Council, at its present session, apply Article 17 of the Covenant and then pass on to the enforcement of sanctions upon Japan's certain refusal to accept a League summons.

Should the Powers again seek to evade their responsibilities, he reportedly warned the British delegate, China's long-standing patience would be exhausted and she would no longer see any reason to remain a member of an organisation whose ineffectiveness was a guarantee of peace and justice was clearly established. JAPANESE BOMBER DISABLED

Chungking, Oct. 24.

One Japanese bomber is reported to have been brought down in a raid on October 22 at Liangshan, north-east of Chungking. Chinese pursuit planes engaged the raiders. It is reported, the bomber being disabled by a shot through the petrol tank. The Chinese sustained no losses.—Reuter.

Foreign Interests Will Be Accorded Due Respect

Hankow, Oct. 24.

Referring to the rumours of the possible blowing up of buildings in Hankow, some adjacent to British property, General Kuo Chan, Defence Commissioner, pointed out to-day that this step has not yet been decided upon.

A promise had already been given to the foreign Consulate-authorities that they would be given twelve hours notice of any such measures.

General Kuo Chan stated, "I am responsible for this area and the interests of foreigners will be respected. Anyone endangering the lives of foreigners will be shot."

Martial law is being enforced in Wuhan city as from to-day while the river above Hankow will be closed to navigation as from to-morrow.

The British gunboats, H.M.S. Petrel and H.M.S. Tern are both safely on this side of the boom after recent trips up-river.—Reuter.

REFUGEE ZONE SETTLED

Hankow, Oct. 24.

Father Jacquinet stated to-day that matter of a refugee zone at Hankow has definitely been settled. The area embraces Administrative Districts 1, 2 and 3 and also the Chinese area as far as the railway line.

The former has been fully agreed upon, but the latter area will, of course, be subject to the approval of the Japanese.

The Foreign Residents' Association has published an announcement requesting all foreigners in outlying districts to move into the Administrative districts.—Reuter.

CHARGES DENIED BY CARDINAL INNITZER

Vienna, Oct. 24.

Cardinal Innitzer to-day denied charges that he participated in an anti-Nazi campaign. He said that he publicly thanked Herr Hitler when Germany annexed Sudetenland and also commanded the ringing of church bells.—Reuter.

It is learned that the Japanese have deserted Namoa Island on the ground that it is a barren place and no longer of use to the Japanese. The Namoa magistracy has sent men to investigate the authenticity of the report so that, if it is true, relief work might be started in the Island.

JAPANESE BUILDINGS DYNAMITED

Hankow, Oct. 24.

Dynamite fuses are at present being placed in all Japanese buildings in Hankow, which are mostly alongside property belonging to other foreigners.

BLUECHER IN CHINA?

Marshal Bluecher was formerly known as General Galens, and was military adviser in Canton to Dr. Sun Yat-sen from 1925 to 1927.—International News.

PERSISTENT REPORTS

The latest reports suggest that Marshal Bluecher, Commander-in-Chief of the Soviet Far Eastern forces, whose disappearance from public view has given rise to persistent reports in Moscow and elsewhere that he has been disgraced, imprisoned, or shot, may be busy in Outer Mongolia or China. These reports, however, lack sufficient confirmation, says "The Times" Riga correspondent.

The Press in the Baltic States has recorded further details of military assistance which Russia is alleged to be giving to China. This applies to armoured cars, tanks and lorries which are alleged to be streaming to China continuously by two main routes—via Odessa by sea and via Siberia. China, it is said, has undertaken to pay in gold.

Seven hundred Chinese officers who attended the Soviet manoeuvres are receiving intensive theoretical training before returning. Also, 112 Chinese airmen are at present completing their training at Voronezh and 350 elsewhere.

JAPANESE NAVAL LAUNCH HIT BY CHINESE PLANE

Shanghai, Oct. 24.

A Chinese monoplane attacked a Japanese naval launch in the upper reaches of the Yangtze on Sunday, a Japanese naval spokesman announced to-day at the press conference.

Several Japanese were killed and others were wounded he stated. The Chinese monoplane was white in colour and had red circles painted on the wings, the spokesman said.—Reuter.

SCHOOLBOYS VISIT ONTARIO CAMP

"Lambeth Walk" Tour

Laden with cowboy shirts, ties, belts and hats, the 23 English public schoolboys who have been visiting Canada returned to London recently.

In the course of a crowded month's tour the boys have visited paper mills, lumber camps, and fox farms. They were entertained by the Mayor of Quebec, visited the Toronto Exhibition, and taught the Canadians how to do the "Lambeth Walk."

"We did the 'Lambeth Walk' and also the 'Palais Glide' on every possible occasion," said Dick Woodward, of Westminster School. "It was one of the best ways of making friends we discovered."

The boys performed the dance in the Queen Mary going out, in small river steamers in Canada, in Toronto, and in dance halls in every part of Canada they visited.

"We were six days in Kaganawing Camp, Ontario, run by Canadian boys," said Woodward. "Here we were taught how to canoe by a Red Indian instructor, and how to ride in the cowboy fashion by Powder River, a former Rodeo champion."

Mr. H. E. Ruby, careers master at Dulwich College, and Major J. M. West were in charge of the party, which was arranged by the British Empire Union. Major West is remaining in Canada to arrange for next year's tour.

SITUATION IN NEAR EAST

Political Development In Syria

Cairo, Oct. 24.

Interest in the future political development in Syria has been revived here in consequence of a short stay in Cairo of the Iraqi Foreign Minister, Seyyed Tuwrik Swaidi, on his return to Bagdad from London and Paris where he had important conversations with leading political personalities on the situation in the Near East.

The Foreign Minister declared to Transocean's representative that questions in dispute between France and Syria, notably the question of autonomy of the province of Djazirah, would be solved in such a manner as to give satisfaction to the Syrian demands.

The Minister further affirmed that the French Government had promised to obtain ratification of the Franco-Syrian Treaty at the beginning of the next session of the French Parliament—Transocean.

CAVALRY STILL USEFUL

The fact that the Scots Greys are going to Palestine is highly significant. One of the only two cavalry regiments now left to the British Army, the Scots Greys escaped mechanisation not long ago only through the popular indignation the proposal aroused North of the Tweed.

It was then said by some military experts that the decision not to mechanise them would put the Scots Greys out of serious consideration as a military unit, and condemn them to purely ceremonial use.

Apparently, however, the utility of mounted troops is now realised in Palestine, where conditions are not unlike those prevailing in South Africa during the Boer War.

So once more the modernists in the military cosmos are confounded, and the cavalry upholders justified in their faith. (Nottingham Guardian)

BIG AIR FORCE CONTINGENT FOR OVERSEAS

London, Oct. 24.

The biggest contingent of officers and men of the Royal Air Force ever to be sent overseas in one ship as part of the ordinary troopship programme is embarking in the transport Neva, which will leave Southampton to-morrow.

The Air Force personnel travelling in the Neva will number approximately 1,000, many accompanied by their families thus making a full complement for the troopship.

Normally transports are shared with the Army and Navy and it is very unusual for the full capacity to be used by the Royal Air Force. The contingent will be dispersed among units in Iraq, India, Aden, Khartoum and Malta.—British Wireless.

THAMES SHIPPING IMPEDED BY FOG

London, Oct. 24.

The Thames shipping was seriously impeded this morning by a local fog and considerable delay was caused on the roads and railways in suburban London.

The fog, which cleared later, was patchy, and while visibility in some parts was less than 50 yards, elsewhere there was brilliant sunshine.—British Wireless.

THE PRICE OF PEACE

RUSSIA AND CZECHS

What Herr Hitler has gained by the threat of force has made the force at his disposal much greater still. The fear of being opposed by Britain, France, Czechoslovakia and Russia is dispelled. Poland is swinging visibly into the German orbit.

Czechoslovakia, without her fortifications and her mountain frontier, is powerless.

Russia, left out of every vital consultation by Britain and France, is likely to retain small interest in their future fortunes. And the German army will be swelled by the conscripts whom three million new citizens will yield.

Never since the days of Napoleon has any Power held such predominance in Europe. And enough is known of German trade policy to make it certain that our share of European markets from the Rhine to Constantinople will steadily, perhaps rapidly, diminish.—(Spectator)

DR. E. BENES

Dr. E. Benes, former President of Czechoslovakia, who is now in England spent the week-end quietly with friends. According to present plans he does not intend making public appearances before he leaves for the United States to become visiting professor at Chicago University, says British Wireless.

The International Chamber of Commerce met in Paris on October 18 and 19, delegates from fourteen countries including Germany, France, Great Britain, Italy, U.S.A., Belgium, the Netherlands, Poland, Sweden and Switzerland taking part in the discussion according to a Transocean.

TWO LOVEBIRDS WITHOUT HOME May Have To Spend Life At Sea

Two blue lovebirds which reached Plymouth recently are finding the world a bewildering place just now.

They are probably sick of the sight of the sea, too, because they have already crossed the Atlantic three times in search of a home.

If the French authorities are not more lenient than the British and American Customs they will become wanderers and spend the rest of their lives at sea.

They arrived at Plymouth in the French liner Ile de France. They were first brought to England by Greta Nissen, the film star, but because they are badgerers and so, technically, members of the parrot species, they were not allowed to enter the country under the regulations for the prevention of zoonotic diseases or parrot disease.

They were sent back to New York, but in their absence similar regulations had been enforced in the United States and they were not permitted ashore there. Recently, when they came back to England again, they were once more refused entry. Now they are being taken to Havre in the hope that they may find a home in France.

CENTENARY PLANS

Britain's youngest colony, Aden, is busy making plans for its centenary celebrations on Jan. 19 next year.

A committee, under the patronage of the Governor, Sir Bernard Reilly, plans to establish a maternity and child welfare clinic and a permanent organisation for poor relief, as the most suitable and lasting form of memorial for the centenary.

Aden, which was captured by an expedition from Bombay in 1839, was transferred from the Government of India to the Colonial Office last year.

STATE CONTROL OF BUILDING SOCIETIES

Chief Registrar's Review

Mr. John Fox, Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies, reviewed the effects of Government control of building societies in Great Britain at the International Congress of Building Societies at Zurich.

Control dated, he said, for all practical purposes from the passing of the Building Societies Act, 1874. The majority of societies existing at that date obtained incorporation under that Act. Some societies chose to remain unincorporated, but the reasons for allowing this had long since disappeared.

Under an amending Act of 1894 the Registrar was empowered to prescribe the form of annual statement, so that uniformity was assured and ambiguity removed. Unincorporated building societies were compelled for the first time to send in annual statements to the Registrar.

Section 5 of this Act gave the Registrar power to appoint an inspector to examine into and report on the affairs of a society. In a number of cases criminal proceedings had followed.

REPORT FOR PARLIAMENT

The last, though not the least important, means of control introduced by the Act of 1894 arose out of the duty imposed upon the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies of making an abstract and report of the annual accounts and statements of societies, and of the proceedings of the Registrars under the Building Societies Act, and of laying them before Parliament.

Knowledge that such a report was made available for public consumption deterred undesirable persons from entering the realms of building society finance.

It was an unquestionable fact that the control imposed by Parliament, particularly that contained in the Act of 1894, had contributed largely to the sound position in which building societies were to-day, not by imposing annoying restrictions on legitimate business, but by making it difficult for undesirable persons to carry on shady business.

Score in the first half was five points (a goal) to nil but play in the second half was more interesting.

Fuss Makes Football Seem Rougher

To outward view and by specific law, Association football has become annually less and less "rough" since the days when Lady Kinnaird, mother of the Hon. Douglas, the famous Old Etonian cup-fighter, was reassured that if her son came home with a broken leg it would not be his own, writes a Home correspondent.

In those days "hacking over" was legal and recognised as good play; and heavy shoulder-charging was of the essence of the game.

By the time I began first-class football in 1888 "hacking and tripping" had been outlawed but heavy charging remained. Now anything like real charging is penalised by the referee and booed by the crowd.

But the less "rough" the game has become, the more accidents occur.

This in spite of all the protective legislation, preventive clinics and antipastory cotton wool, plaster and bandages.

I do not welcome the explanation that the modern man is softer, frailer and more brittle. But I am pretty well sure he makes more fuss.

The old fashion was not to make a fuss; the new manner is to be as hurt as you can possibly simulate.

On the other hand, girls used to have vapours and faint; now they would die rather than give way to such weakness.

In my day no footballer, and not even a cricketer, ever "pulled" a muscle; if he did anything, he "strained" or "tore" a muscle. These may be equivalent terms. But there are far more "pulls" than there were "tears."

Rugby looks far rougher than Association; but it involves far fewer accidents. A famous surgeon, too, told me that Rugby injuries are generally quite minor.

Very few injuries in Soccer come from rough or even foul play; they are generally pure accidents, due to non-co-ordinated muscular efforts, or to twists and wrenches of ankles and knees.

"The only time I was hurt at Rugby was when the entire Richmond pack sat awkwardly on my flexed right knee. At Soccer I had my left cheek bone (the jutting bone that resembles a punter's stone beneath the eyes) bashed into fragments by the forehead of Jack Robertson, the Scottish half-back.

It felt funny on the Saturday and I had a record black eye but I was practising with Alfred Law at the nets on the Monday.

Everybody knows that fair shoulder-charging, however heavy, is completely harmless. It is, however, heavily penalised nowadays, whereas the really dangerous "charge with the lifted knee" is rarely even observed by referees. If you get an angular northern knee by way of a kidney-punch, you know it.

In former days the most annoying treatment one met was "ankle-tapping." You cleared the ball (I was a back) and the forward clicked his boot against your other ankle.

Bruises are nothing. A fit, hard man recovers from any bruise very quickly. The commonest strain of a muscle comes from the heel cutting through wet turf, at the end of an extended stride; the sudden over-reach strains the big muscle behind the thigh.

Football, my friends, is not a dangerous game, even in a minor degree.

It may console any present knocked-outs to know that my worst injury was at cricket.

EVERTON FIND A STAR

In League Team In Two Months

A nineteen-year-old boy, who became a professional footballer through a misunderstanding, has been seen from junior football to the First Division of the League in under two months. He is Arthur Barber of Weston-super-Mare.

An Everton "scout" saw Barber playing in junior football and recommended him for a trial.

The boy's enthusiasm and his disappointment when he learned that he had been brought all the way to Liverpool for one match prompted the directors to extend his trial, and long before the month was up they realised they had a star in the making. They signed him on professional terms. Scoring a goal in the first trial game, Barber scored eight more in four "A" team matches, including four in one game, and was promoted to the Central League side. Now he gets his real chance.

EAST SURREYS SCORE EIGHT GOALS

East Surrey Regiment, recently arrived in the Colony, showed yesterday that they are force to be reckoned with on the football field.

They took on a team from the Royal Navy, scored five goals in the first half and added another three after the interval.

There's A Hoodoo At Huddersfield

There is a hoodoo on Huddersfield Town. On Huddersfield Town forwards, anyway. During the past few years no big football club has paid fees for more forwards than Huddersfield Town.

The Town have gone to Scotland for players; to the first, second and third divisions for players. But for all this effort Huddersfield Town forwards lines have, for a long time, been the least successful part of the team, writes a Home correspondent.

This state of affairs started back in 1934-35 season. New players then tried numbered eight. The names:—Beech (Altrincham), Malam (Chesterfield), Ball (Manchester United), Richardson (Newcastle United), Lythgoe (Stockport County), Anderson (Burton), Lang (Newcastle United), and Bottrill (Wolves).

In spite of all these the hoodoo continued. Next season Huddersfield Town signed Butt (Macclesfield), Chester (Manchester United), Chivers (Barnsley), and Ogilvie (Motherwell).

On we go to 1936-37 when the new hands were Cooper

(Hallifax Town), Beasley (Ardersley), Hastie (Partick Thistle), McFadyen (Motherwell), and Barclay (Sheffield United).

BLEND WAS MISSING

There was no mistaking the merit of most of these players. Still the blend was missing and the hunt went on.

Last season Huddersfield Town signed Watson (Partick Thistle), Hinchliffe (Grimsby Town), Hulme (Ardersley), Beattie (Birmingham), and Mills (Aberdeen). In spite of that Town just missed relegation.

Things were still unsatisfactory when this season opened. Changes were tried. Then the club signed Jack Mahon, the West Bromwich Albion outside-right. Recently Harry Baird, Manchester United's Irish inside forward, was transferred to Leeds Road.

OVER 30 NEW FORWARDS

To save you the trouble of reckoning up, I may say that I have mentioned the names of twenty-four players.

In addition to these signings Huddersfield Town have introduced less expensive players such as:—Weinand, Johnson, Brook, Isaac, Spedding, Rawlings, Morris, Beaumont and Price.

That 3-0 win over Everton suggests an end to this hoodoo.

I'm not so sure. There was spirit in the forwards' display. But I don't think there was the blend and smooth functioning Huddersfield Town want and which they have tried so hard to secure.

THROW-IN GOALS HIT CHELSEA

Blackpool 5, Chelsea 1. Bob Finan, of Blackpool, is the best non-goalscorer in the first division I have ever seen. He did not score at Blackpool, but he had the Chelsea defence dizzy by the end of the game, writes a Home Correspondent.

Craig, the Chelsea centre half, never seemed certain whom he was marking.

Big Frank O'Donnell intelligently came into the middle when Finan was a-roaming. His first half hat-trick of goals were scored from the centre forward position—the first hat-trick scored at Blackpool for several seasons.

George Farrow, Blackpool half-back, put a throw-in right to the foot of O'Donnell, standing on the goal centre. I can forgive Chelsea being taken by surprise the first time, but they let the same thing happen ten minutes later!

The "second half" was a farce. Chelsea were facing wind-driven rain. They were also facing a winning team. Blackpool then did a bit of showing off—tip-tap-pins, back-passing and adding about. But Chelsea can thank Woodley that the score was in single figures.

Blackpool's second-half goals were scored by Buchanan. Chelsea got their goal in the last two minutes through Payne. Johnston headed out, but the referee—who was near enough to be certain—said the ball was over the line before Johnston's effort.

PIGSKIN MONOPOLY IN MANCHOUKIO

The Manchoukio monopoly of pigskins is again in action and this time one of its tentacles has fastened upon the pigskin industry. A new company is to be formed which is to monopolise the buying, sale and importation of pigskins.

The buying includes that of the domestic product as well as the foreign one; the sales comprise those of the skins themselves to "other countries" and those of the manufactured articles to the army. "Other countries," in all probability, can be taken as Japan.

The company is to be called the Manchuria Pigskin Corporation. It is to be a joint enterprise of the Manchuria Live Stock Co., the Manchurian and Mongolian Production Co. and the Bristles Industry Co. (which was formed recently to monopolise that product).

Manchoukio, this year, is expected to export to Japan pigskins to the number of 350,000, valued at approximately Y1,230,000.

SHANGHAI FOREIGN TRADE

According to the monthly returns issued by the Chinese Maritime Customs covering the foreign trade of Shanghai, net imports during September 1938, totalled $25,758,350. Net exports totalled $27,436,171. January-September figures were $174,923,915 and $141,507,127 respectively.

S.D.A. CHURCH STONELAYING

Ceremony On Thursday

Construction of the Seventh Day Adventist Pioneer Memorial Church, Vent's Road, Happy Valley, is under way. According to information received from the local church authorities, the laying of the corner-stone will take place on Thursday at 3.30 p.m. A programme is being arranged in connexion with the laying of the corner-stone in which the local church leaders and out-of-town visitors will take part.

Soil was broken for the foundation of this structure on May 3 this year, which date marked the 50th anniversary of the arrival in the Colony of Abram La Rue, the first Seventh Day Adventist missionary in the Orient.

Seventh Day Adventists look upon Hongkong as a centre for their church activities in South China, and are endeavouring to strengthen their work here. During the past year, due to the unsettled conditions in Shanghai, work for the whole China Division has been carried on from here.

The different institutions of the same organization have also been operating in Hongkong. These include the Signs of the Times Publishing House; the Far Eastern Academy, their school for missionary children in the Orient; a school for the training of national workers, and the Home Study Institute.

In addition to the Pioneer Memorial Church, the Seventh Day Adventists are establishing a permanent school for the training of their South China youth in the New Territories. Building operations have already begun, and it is hoped to have the new building ready for occupancy for the school term opening next autumn.

PEACE RUMOURS

a meeting to readjust China's national policy, then the Japanese army will begin partial evacuation. The area evacuated shall organize a Peace Army comprised generally of Italian and German bluejackets and also the traitors' Peace Preservation Corps, etc.

"SILVER BULLET" SCANDAL MADE IN JAPAN
The public is warned against the grave consequences in regard to the morale of the whole nation in listening to the "silver bullet" story connected with the fall of Canton. The "Wah Kiu Yat Po" believes that it was concocted and maliciously spread by Japanese scandal-mongers obviously with an ulterior motive.

As bases of reason for incredulity of the story the paper mentions that when news of the fall of Canton was received, the Japanese in Peking and Tientsin, and even in Taiwan, and the military leaders in Japan proper, were all greatly surprised by the ultra-swiftness of the Japanese military campaign. They were afraid that in penetrating too far without due time would endanger their soldiers' safety. Had the "silver bullets" really been an actual fact, it would have been made use of by the Japanese, why therefore should they have expressed such alarm?

ARCH-TRAITORS
Secondly, the rumoured "silver bullets" at its most could only number a few tens of million dollars. The paper does not think that the amount would have induced the Chinese high officials to turn arch-traitors of the Chinese nation, especially as the Chinese army, upon evacuating Canton, eloquently proclaimed their firm determination in the scorched-earth policy by blasting all public utilities, etc.

Then, it is not unlikely that the evacuation of Canton is part of a military strategy which evicts Japanese leaders. Canton is close to Hongkong. The majority of the local residents are Cantonese. Naturally, they are extraordinarily concerned at the fall of their home province, but the mystery of military strategy requires a man of special discernment to surmise. Our army may have made a mistake in evacuating Canton, but at this critical moment what has been a "fait accompli" should no longer be mooted.

Our territory may be lost but not our hearts. Let us not listen to the "silver bullet" scandal manufactured in Japan but place our confidence in the Government unwaveringly and continue our struggle.

SHANGHAI CHESS

International Club Meeting

Professor John A. Ely was re-elected President of the International Chess Club of Shanghai at the annual general meeting which was held in the Foreign Y. M. C. A. lounge, H. W. Snow was chosen as Hon. Secretary-Treasurer.

The new Committee comprises of R. Barber, D. Pollakoff, E. B. Gledhill and S. Kosovsky. Owing to the disturbed period of the Sino-Japanese hostilities during the past season Club membership has fallen off. Instead of the usual 50 to 60 members there were only 22 at present. Some of the old members have left Shanghai while others were prevented from attending the various meetings in the past because of curfew regulations, volunteer service and other reasons in connection with the emergency situation.

It was expressed that in this coming year, with conditions gradually becoming normal, membership will reach its former number and even be increased. The Club feels certain that all the tournaments can be held this season and the incoming officers will begin to make out the plans very soon.

CESAREWITCH PROSPECTS

Second Win For Fet?

Newmarket, Oct. 24.
Despite the fact that no horse has ever won the Cesarewitch twice, only Grey-tick in 1903 won when over six years of age, Mr. Edward Benson, owner by the seven-year-old Fet expects to win. He says it is a really good each way investment.

Other horses fancied to win the centenary Cesarewitch which has special interest to many due to the Irish Sweep and the vast sums won by the few people who backed Hellenique in the Autumn Double, include Du Bonnet, Snipehead, Stainless Stephen, Snake Lightning, Solonaise, Trevisani and the French horses Contrevent and Malkowicz who are hoping to complete the double for France. The going is likely to be good. Reuter.

PREVIOUS WINNERS

Winners of the Cesarewitch since 1933 are as follows:—
1933, Seminole; 1934, Enfield; 1935, Near Relation; 1936, Fet; 1937, Punch.

The race is run over a distance of two miles two furlongs.
London, Oct. 24.
Harry Weston replaces Maer on Stainless Stephen in the Cesarewitch will be run on Wednesday. Reuter.

PRE-BUDDHIST CULTURE IN INDO-CHINA

Scientist's Discoveries Among Lamet, Akha Tribes

After two years of studies among peoples no Western scientist has ever visited before, a young Swedish ethnologist, Dr. Karl Gustaf Zikowitz, has just returned to Stockholm from the border territories of French Indo-China, and Burma.

The purpose of these researches, which were facilitated by grants from the Rockefeller Foundation and from Sweden, were primarily sociological, but the expedition has also resulted in the Ethnographical Museum at Stockholm receiving a collection of materials from a part of the world which has hitherto been represented in no European museum.

PRIMITIVE PEOPLE

Dr. Zikowitz has obtained this material principally from two peoples, the Lamet and the Akha, which have a rather primitive and poor culture but which are of special interest because they possess certain characteristics from pre-Buddhist Chinese cultures.

For instance, this Swedish explorer was present at a feast of a type which is described in ancient Chinese records but which has long since disappeared from China, and he has taken home a number of triangular balls which according to a special ritual are thrown backwards and forwards at such feasts between young men and women.

Dr. Zikowitz also found that these Indo-Chinese play football with bouncing balls made of cane, which they kick with their knees, and that they hold drinking competitions with fermented rice between teams of men and women, the latter usually being the victors.
